7. There is a possibility that students might not be coming in school uniform, such student may be allowed to appear in the examination, however, their identity must be checked.
8. CBSE has fixed more number of centres with a view to allot small number of candidates in each centre. Also for making necessary arrangement for providing confidential material it was a necessity to have smaller number of candidate at each centre. Accordingly, Board has fixed the examination centres.
9. Candidates may be allowed to appear only in the subject which is mentioned in their admit card.
10. Necessary precaution should be taken by the staff when coming in contact with the students to take proper health safety measure.
11. Answer book may be sealed immediately after the examination is over and sent to the concerned Regional Office as per the instructions received from your Regional Office.
12. In case of any difficulty kindly get in touch with your Regional Office.

I am sure that with your efforts and sincerity, CBSE will be able to conduct the examination safely and successfully.

With best wishes,

Yours faithfully
